

LONG GROVE DENTAL

Sam Akmakjian, DDS

In practice for over 20 years, Dr. Sam Akmakjian is the founder of Long Grove Dental, a full-service dental practice. Renowned for his exceptional talent and commitment to dentistry, Dr. Akmakjian recently expanded his suburban practice to Chicago's River North area.

The Smile Center of Chicago, similar to Long Grove Dental, is a full-service practice which performs comprehensive dental and restorative care, implant dentistry, periodontal and endodontic treatments, porcelain crowns, fixed bridges, full and partial dentures, oral surgery, orthodontic treatment, as well as cosmetic dentistry.

Both this new office and the original Long Grove facility are on the cutting edge of technology and adhere to high sterilization and patient-safety standards. Dr. Akmakjian creates beautiful smiles one smile at a time in a relaxing yet sophisticated office environment.

A graduate of Northwestern University and Northwestern University Dental School, Dr. Akmakjian has received several professional awards, including the America's Top Dentists Award as well as the National Leadership Award. He is also an active member in numerous professional organizations, such as the American Dental Association (ADA), the Chicago Dental Society (CDS), as well as the American Academy of Implant Dentistry.

Patients and colleagues alike hold Dr. Akmakjian in high esteem for his dedication to quality dental care at fees that are usual and customary. But yet he delivers smiles which are anything but usual and customary.
